PAUL REDFERN IS DECLARED FOUND
ALIVE IN JUNGLE

AMERICAN FLIER, MISSING
SINCE 1927, HELD AS CAP-
TIVE GOD BY NATIVES

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana, Feb. 20.—(P)—Alfred Harred, reporter of the newspaper "Banier" of Paramaribo, Dutch Guiana, claimed today that he had seen and talked with Paul Redfern, long-lost American flier, but Harred's account was denied by Art Williams, former army flier who had said pilot ed him into the jungle.

Harred, in a dispatch to his paper, declared that he and Williams found Redfern living with an Indian tribe which would not allow him to leave.

Williams, however, denied that he had seen Redfern.

(At Washington, the state department reported receipts of a message by the Brazilian foreign office in which a Brazilian official said Williams and another American had been in the village where the aviator Redfern is supposed to be.)

(The British embassy at Rio de Janeiro, in a telegram from the governor of British Guiana, received word that "Williams stated his conviction that the wreck of Redfern's plane is in the neighborhood of the village of Sapokot, Indian headman in Brazil.")

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana, Feb. 20.—(P)—A new story that Paul Redfern, long-lost American flier, is alive among savage South American Indians who will not permit him to escape, was brought to civilization today by Alfred Harred, reporter of the newspaper "Banier" of Paramaribo, Dutch Guiana.

Harred claimed that he and Art Williams, former United States army pilot, found Redfern and talked to him but were unable to remove him from the jungle.

There was no official confirmation of the story, although Harred claims to have been a member of the Dutch section boundary commission, engaged in surveying the frontier where British Guiana, Dutch Guiana, and Brazil meet and where Harred claims to have found Redfern.

The story is that Redfern is living in the Tumuc Humac mountains in western Guiana.

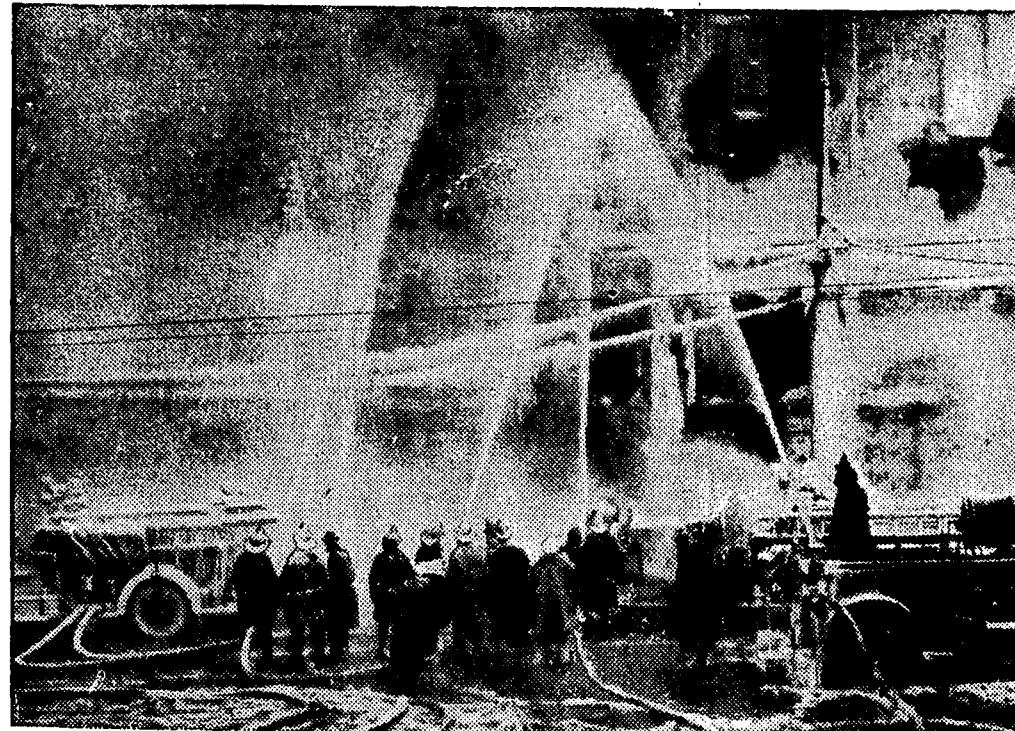

Williams himself could not immediately be reached for comment on the story which is similar to that first told by Tom Roach, German-American explorer, two years ago.

Harred's story in substance, as published by the "Banier" and reported in Georgetown, follows:

After Redfern started out on Aug. 25, 1927, from Brunswick, Ga., on an attempt to fly to Rio de Janeiro, he crashed in the Tu-

GEN. WM. MITCHELL

CAREER OF STORMY PETREL
OF ARMY AIR FORCE CLOS-ED BY DEATH IN HOSPITAL

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—(P)—

Brig. Gen. William Mitchell, once called the "bad boy of army aviation," who died yesterday of heart disease, will be buried Saturday at Milwaukee.

The service will be at 10 a. m. in St. Paul's Cathedral.

General Mitchell—affectionately known as "Billy" to the U. S. airmen he commanded in the World war—died unexpectedly late yesterday in a New York hospital of heart disease. His condition, although not considered serious, had been weakened by influenza complications. He was 57 years of age.

Paley said peace officers and licensed dealers protested so vociferously about a sale of two immense lots scheduled at Middletown, June 26, 1935, that he ended his tour as assistant to the chief of the air service in Washington, caused him to be court-martialed and suspended.

Paley said Sergeant Henry Butts, ballistics expert of the New York City police department, had said he would "have it stopped, and it was stopped."

Senator Pope (D-Ida.) suggested that when dealers bought the guns they "recognized they were likely to find their way into gangster hands."

"Oh, I would say you were wrong there," Paley said. "The

WILLIAM FOX IS ORDERED ARRESTED
IN CONTEMPT CASE

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—(P)—

Federal Judge William Bondy today ordered issuance of a warrent for the arrest of William Fox, former motion picture magnate, on a contempt of court charge for allegedly failing to submit to an examination in supplementary proceedings ordered by the court.

Judge Bondy fined Fox $235.

Another advance by the Italian armada in Northern Ethiopia was indicated today by Marshal Pietro Badoglio, commander of the Italian forces in East Africa.

He reported tersely to Rome:

"The first army corps has renew-

Italian action appeared greater in the diplomatic arena of Europe with Premier Mussolini of Italy and Reichsfuehrer Hitler of Germany making overtures toward the revival of the pre-war triple entente of Germany, Italy and Austria.

Diplomatic quarters indicated that an understanding between Italy and Germany might be used to balance off France's "ring of steel" around Germany and the League of Nations' sanctions against Italy.

HOPE SAYS LANDON, HOO-

SERVATIONISTS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—(P)—The administration's new farm bill was backed today by Rep. Hope (R-Kans.) with the assertion that Governor Landon of Kansas, Senator Dickinson of Iowa and former President Hoover all have advanced the soil conservation idea.

Stepping into the debate that is expected to bring a final vote on the soil conservation-subsidy program by tomorrow night, Hope pleaded for non-partisan consideration of farm legislation.

"Farm legislation has been a political football for a long while," said the Kansas, who is a friend of Landon, a republican president.

Hope supported the new deal bill despite his objections to failure to limit its temporary features to one year instead of two, and his contention that the measure does not go far enough.

He is the author of a house republicans' bill along lines of the plan advocated by Landon.

"The soil conservation idea has been discussed more by republicans than by democrats," he told the house.

Rep. Anderson (R-Minn.), supporter of an amendment by Rep. Boileau (P-Wis.) to prevent any of the 25,000,000 acres, to be taken out of production, being used for dairy production, drew from Hope the agreement that in committee republicans criticized only fall-

TOKYO, Feb. 20.—(P)—An early movement of two Japanese army divisions from Japan to the Japanese-advised state of Manchoukuo was announced today by the Tokyo war office.

A war office spokesman said the troop movement involved only the annual reinforcements, was not connected with Russo-Japanese tension over Far Eastern border incidents and would not increase the Japanese forces in Manchoukuo.

Emperor Hirohito sanctioned the dispatch of the divisions.

CLAYTON DECLARES

ONE OF WORLD'S LARGEST
MERCHANTS, W. L. CLAYTON,
BEFORE COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—(P)—The senate agriculture committee today heard one of the world's largest cotton merchants say the nation "will never have a healthy cotton market until the government gets out."

W. L. Clayton, head of Anderson, Clayton and Co., of Houston, Texas, made the assertion when questioned by Alfred S. Wylie, committee attorney, as to what could be done to prevent sudden market breaks.

The committee is investigating the two cent a pound price break March 11, 1935.

"As long as there is a cotton market there will be fluctuations," Clayton said, "and of course breaks."

A committee is investigating while severe and regrettable is likely to occur in the future no matter what you may do and of course there will be price advances."

"But we will never have a healthy market until the government gets out."

Clayton said the government was

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—(P)—Dr. Frederick Cook, storm center of the "North Pole fraud" that shook the world a generation ago, came out of retirement today to demand that science recognize his claim to discovery of the pole in 1908.

White-haired and weary of being jeered as a faker, the 70 year-old explorer asked that his name be cleared "before I die."

In a letter written to the American Geographical Society on the 28th anniversary of his departure from Greenland, Dr. Cook requested "a full and impartial investigation of my story."

His polar discovery claim disputed by the late Admiral Robert E. Peary, who said he attained the pole a year after the date given by Cook—has been upheld by every expedition since his own, Dr. Cook declared.

His description of the polar regions has been verified by Admiral Richard E. Byrd, Lincoln

Ellsworth, Roald Amundsen, and

General Umberto Nobile, the physiician-scientist contend in an interview.

Even Peary's account of polar conditions was virtually identical with the story Cook had published a week before, the doctor said.

"My claims, and those of Peary, must stand or fall on those reports," Cook declared. "As they were published, and can not be changed. Nothing can be taken as it is."

WEST NAVARRO CAGE STARS DEFEATED TWO TEAMS LAST NIGHT

PURDON AND CORTICANA TIGERS CLASH IN DISTRICT MEET AT WACO FRIDAY

By JOHN SAM HASLAM
Daily Sun Sports Staff

Considered by coaches as the county's number one team at the season's outset, Purdon high school cagers came through true to form Tuesday night to win the Navarro County University of Texas Inter-scholastic league class A and B basketball championship on the Frost gymnasium, after having survived a field of 30 starters. As a result, Purdon will meet the Corsicana high school Tigers, a city-county unit, at 11 o'clock Friday morning in Waco in the district tournament.

Purdon defeated Emmett 43-23 in the final class B game at 7 o'clock, and then won the all round county title by defeating State Home, class A winner, 58-6 at 9 o'clock. State Home went into the class A and B finals with a 16-12 win over Dawson at 6 o'clock, after Dawson had put out Keren, the only other class A team, last Saturday at Mildred.

The third place title was won by Pickett 24-23 over Rural Shade, at 8 o'clock. Purdon's court prowess was not challenged during the entire tournament, which started at Mildred on Friday, Feb. 7, and each game was a decisive victory for the defending champions. Purdon had won the Y. M. C. A. boys' invitation title for three consecutive years in the annual invitational events, including the one at Tehuacana.

In their march to the class A and B championship, Purdon played and defeated Bessette, 63-14; Richardson, 35-15; Currie, 56-26; Pickett 75-10 in the semi-final game, and last night, Emmett 43-23 in the class B final and State Home 58-6 in the class A and B final event.

Purdon's fast breaking offense, combined with the dogged defense and the dead-eye basketability of at least four of their five regulars, accounted for the team's phenomenal demonstrations on the maple courts during this and previous seasons.

Following are the box scores of Tuesday evening's final games:

PURDON BASKETBALL TEAM HAS EXCELLENT THREE-YEAR RECORD

HAS WON NAVARRO COUNTY A AND B CHAMPIONSHIPS THREE SUCCESSIVE YEARS

During the past three years Purdon high school's basketball team has been one of the outstanding teams in the county and has achieved a record that has not been surpassed or even equalled by any team in the county in recent years.

Coached this year by W. O. Swindall, Purdon crowned their achievement by winning the Navarro county University of Texas Interscholastic League class A and B titles for the third consecutive year, which resulted in the cup becoming the permanent property of the school. The team also won the 1935 Y. M. C. A. invitation basketball trophy for the third consecutive year, and that mug, too, now has found its final resting place in the Purdon trophy case. This year, the team won the Teague and Frost tournaments against strong opposition.

One of the high spots of this year's achievements was a shut-out game, which Purdon won over Kosse, the score, 64-0.

The team played 21 games and lost only one, that being to Bynum, by the close score of 25-23. During the season, Purdon scored 975 points to their opponents' 382. The average per game was 46.5 points, and opponents 18.1 points.

Meet Corsicana Tigers. Friday morning at 11 o'clock, Purdon, wearing the silks of Navarro county class A and B champions, were scheduled to meet the Corsicana high school, a city-county unit, in the 1936 edition of the University of Texas Interscholastic League district tournament at Waco.

Purdon went to the district by virtue of its enviable record piled up in the county tournament just completed. Their first win was a 63-14 affair over Bazuette, and their second was over Richland, 25-15. Purdon ran wild over the remainder of their opposition, defeating Currie, 58-28, in their quarter-final game; Pickett, 75-18 in their semi-final; Emmett, 42-23 in their final class B game, and State Home, 58-6, in the final between winners of the A and B sections of the loop.

During their march to the county title, Purdon scored 330 points to their opponents' 103 in six games.

Made First Bid in 1933. The west-county lads made their first serious bid for county fame in 1933, when they were under the coaching of C. C. Isbell, now superintendent at Rockwall Green. They went to the county B finals, but were defeated by Navarro. Players that year were J. D. Norton, C. McGeehee, D. Farmer, Hagle, L. Davis and Henthorn.

Their first taste of success came in 1934 when they were coached by Mr. Wade, Norton, McGeehee, Farmer, Hagle and Davis remained from the previous team, and their ranks were strengthened by the services of Neely, Rogers and Crenshaw.

That year they won the Y. M. C. A. invitation tournament, the Mildred tournament and the county championship. They went to the district finals, and survived all their games. After winning the district contest, they survived all but the final game in the bi-district, which they dropped to Denton, by a score of 28-28. That year, the team played 52 games and won 47. The team scored 1985 points to their opposition's 1073, averaging 38 points per game, to their opponent's 21.

Coached in 1935 by Bruce Jeffries, a product of the Corsicana high school and Tiger squad, Purdon featured the smooth playing of an almost veteran team, which numbered among its personnel, J. D. Norton, P. W. Rogers, M. Neely, C. Kennedy, O. Crenshaw, S. Norton, N. Wilson and C. Bolton.

Had Fine Record. In that year the team played 37 games and won all but four of them. One of these losses was at Waco in the final district game. The score was 26-21. They won the Y. M. C. A. invitation and the county tournaments for the second time, and added the

Frost Club Women Sponsor Yard And Garden Contest

The club women of Frost have begun a yard and garden beautification contest for the centennial which will be of great assistance to the Texas Centennial Highway Beautification Association program, according to Mrs. J. M. Tullos, Navarro county chairman.

Everyone in Frost is taking an active interest, and much will be accomplished. The following score card is to be used throughout the contest, with each contestant keeping his own score, according to his own suggestion. This may be a useful suggestion to other towns in the country:

Each building painted 10 points; clean premises (duration of contest) 10; vacant property planted or cared for 15; vegetable garden 10; each time lawn is mowed 1; each time lawn is edged 1; new lawn planted 5.

Credit yourself as marked if you already have the following things, but for all items added this year double the score:

Bird house or feeding station, each 2 points; bird bath, each 2; lawn seat, archway, porch or window boxes, lattice, ornamental fence, or other attractive yard furniture, each 2; suitable walks or stepping stones from all doors, each 2; pergola, pool, or rock garden, each 2; shrubs for foundation planting (not less than 6); hedges and other shrubs (not less than twelve), 5; small fruit garden, 2; perennial garden (not less than twelve varieties), 5; perennial vine or climbing rose, each 1; rose garden (not less than twelve plants), 5;

Irene tournament to their collection of scalps.

Figures for the 1935 season were not available, but several players reported their team out-pointed their opponents about two to one during the entire season. J. D. Norton and C. Kennedy were chosen by a Waco paper as members of the mythical all-district team.

In 1936 Coach Swindall took over the helm of the Purdon lads, and led them into a season as successful as their two previous.

Still on the roster were P. W. Rogers, M. Neely, C. Kennedy, S. Norton, C. Brown, C. Kirk, as regulars, and A. Murry, K. Wheat and B. Coffey were added as reserves.

As previously stated, Purdon won the Y. M. C. A. invitation and county cups for the third consecutive year, and as they hung up their uniforms at the close of this season will have played in three district tournaments in as many years.

One person was fined for an alleged affray in Judge M. Bryant's court Wednesday afternoon.

A complaint charging theft from person was filed in the court of Judge W. T. McFadden Thursday morning against a negro. She was arrested by city officers.

On the roster were P. W. Rogers, M. Neely, C. Kennedy, S. Norton, C. Brown, C. Kirk, as regulars, and A. Murry, K. Wheat and B. Coffey were added as reserves.

As previously stated, Purdon won the Y. M. C. A. invitation and county cups for the third consecutive year, and as they hung up their uniforms at the close of this season will have played in three district tournaments in as many years.

TOWNSEND PLANNERS DECLARE PROBE BY CONGRESS WELCOME

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—(AP)— Congressional investigation of the Townsend and other old age pension movements was "welcomed" by officials of the Townsend organization as "wonderful publicity for us."

The house voted 240 to 4 yesterday to set up a committee of eight members for the inquiry. Rep. Bell (D-Mo.), author of the inquiry resolution, said that as a doctor of "ills which afflict our social structure" Dr. F. E. Townsend, pension plan leader, is a "charlatan and quack." He said cast no reflection on Townsend's medical record.

Robert E. Clements, national secretary and co-founder of the plan to pay everyone over 60 years of age $200 a month pension, said:

"These monkeys have played right into our hands. They are giving us the biggest piece of publicity we ever could have hoped to get. x x x we shall be exonerated, and our pension plan forced to a vote."

In a formal statement Clements charged that the investigation was "pure and unadulterated political persecution."

Rep. Blanton (D-Tex.) told the house he wanted the investigating committee to sift reports that grocers in certain cities had been forced to turn over to Townsend clubs a stipulated fee on purchases made by club members.

Defenses of the Townsend plan were made by Rep. Smith (D-Wash.) who said there was "no justification" for the inquiry and Rep. Main (R-Mich.), who said he detected "symptoms of political jitters."

ARMY Flier KILLED WHEN HE WAITS TOO LONG TO BAIL OUT

BEAUMONT, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Lieut. Lawrence C. Westley of Barksdale Field, Shreveport, La., was killed when he waited until his disabled airplane had fallen within 200 feet of the ground before bailing out in his parachute to a crash today four miles east of Sour Lake, a town west of here. Serg. Kiffel bailed out at 500 feet and escaped uninjured.

Disturbed over reports that President Roosevelt might recommend a sharp cut in relief funds, the group is making a survey of the unemployed for the unemployed.

The senators are holding their fire until President Roosevelt submits his relief estimates. He has withheld them, and is expected to continue to do so as long as the session permits, to see how much of a problem will be faced in the fiscal year beginning next July 1.

Pending the president's estimates, members of the senate group are refusing to discuss the relief situation for publication. But they are making no secret of their preparations to do battle in case the estimates are less than they consider necessary.

Privately, they express fear that the announced need for places to cut expenses may lead to deep slashes in relief funds. They have heard reports of tentative estimates they regard as insufficient.

These senators declare that the publication of unemployment aid has diminished little, if at all. While the number of jobless is probably less than a couple of years ago, they say, the number needing relief is an entirely different matter. They contend that continued large appropriations for work re-

SENATE GROUP TO FIGHT CURTAILMENT OF FEDERAL RELIEF

By NATHAN ROBERTSON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—(AP)—

A move to fight any sweeping curtailment in next year's relief appropriations is being organized by a senate group demanding "liberal aid" for the unemployed.

President Roosevelt might recom-

TEXAS FARMER TO RECEIVE LARGE SUM ON CROP CONTRACTS

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 20.—(Spl.)—With the passing of a recent appropriation bill signed by the President, Texas farmers are due to receive approximately $17,500,000 to fulfill all old government obligations, according to E. N. Holmgreen, administrative assistant of the AAA at College Station.

"Some payments should begin to arrive within the next 30 days," Holmgreen announced.

"Obligations of the U. S. Government to Texas farmers consist of second payments on the cotton contracts, the completion of rental and parity checks on cotton and the cotton adjustment payments."

Holmgreen went on to say that nearly all counties in the state have some second cotton rental and parity payments due and also that all counties have some cotton adjustment payments coming.

With the opening of action again and an appropriation of $200,185,000, skeleton forces were put to work Feb. 13 and 14 at College Station to push with all speed the paying up of government obligations to the farmers.

Information rushed to the field and county agents by E. N. Holmgreen consisted of the statements: "All contracts and obligations made and compiled with prior to Jan. 1 will be paid."

"We are to proceed in liquidating all 1934 and 1935 cotton, corn-hog, and other contracts which were suspended or returned for correction."

Chester C. Davis, administrator of the Agricultural Adjustment Act in Washington, D. C., recently released this statement: "We will try to prevent delay in fulfilling obligations and in reimbursing these producers who carried out their agreements with the AAA in good faith."

EAST TEXAS FIELD ACTIVITIES UNDER PROBE ONCE MORE

LONGVIEW, Feb. 20.—(P)—Activities in the East Texas oil field were under investigation again today by members of the house of representatives oil committee.

With Augustine Celaya, chairman of the committee, were Sidney Latham and Walter Jones.

The committee inquired into alleged excessive shipments of petroleum by the Tyreco Refining Company at yesterday's session.

A. D. Rogers, Jr., agent for the company, subjected to close questioning, said he threatened E. N. Stanley last October with investigation if the railroad commission enforcement officer filed a penalty suit against his company in connection with the alleged excessive shipments.

He said he referred to a "Senate, house or some other kind of investigation."

Rogers and Stanley said the shipments referred to were from the Tyreco plant to county roads.

Stanley said the threat of an investigation was made against him after he asked the tyco board to withhold approval of Tyreco's tender, pending investigation of oil movement to Pana and Rusk county roads.

"The spending spree grows in momentum," Dunham declared. He described the government's practice of keeping two sets of ledgers, one for the ordinary budget and the other for recovery of expenditures, as "dishonesty."

On the democratic front, in New York and elsewhere, there was considerable speculation about the significance of Alfred E. Smith's presence among the Tammany delegates to the Philadelphia convention in June.

There remained a chance that Smith would be opposed in the primary, but the administration forces have indicated they would not oppose him. It was not believed likely, however, that they would discourage any spontaneous opposition in his district.

Rep. Fish (R-N.Y.), a supporter of Borah, remained angry over what he called the "steam-roller" tactics of the "old guard" in his state's organization. State Chairman Melvin Eaton, in answer to Fish, yesterday declared the slate of delegates-at-large chosen for the national convention in Cleveland was satisfactory to the rank and file of the party.

Fish, seeking state favorable to Senator Borah, had charged that "young republicans" were given no recognition.

JOE WOLENS and Leon Stander of the K. Wolens store spent Monday in Dallas at the Gruybar Electric Company dealers' meeting held at the Baker Hotel.

Among those present were Sam C. Mitchell, director of advertising and sales promotion for the Kelvinator Corporation; Marvin Bandoli, district manager, and Mr. Wimberly, special personnel trainer of the Kelvinator Corporation. One of the features of the program was a two act skit. Leon Stander had the part of the sales man in this skit.

TAXES

Taxes and relief were considered the only remaining major legislation likely to raise a storm in congress—but some legislators figured that storm might be terrific.

Moving—carefully, President Roosevelt has not announced any recommendation on either problem. Uncertainty still surrounded the farm relief tax program after an inconclusive White House conference yesterday.

The tax experts of the treasury and agriculture departments have drafted tentative suggestions for $900,000,000 in levies to finance the farm program and some of the bonus cost, but the White House has not yet passed on the proposals, so far as is known. The suggestions include levies on processors and some revisions in income tax exemptions.

In his letter mailed yesterday to President M. Roland L. Redmond, in New York, Dr. Cook said he turned to the American Geographic Society for vindication because of the society's "reputation for fairness and accuracy."

No one with authority ever named Peary as discoverer of the North Pole, Cook said, but popular opinion was built up in that direction.

The uninstructed delegations and the "favorite son" candidates have been for years the special delight of a perennial group of G. O. P. leaders commonly referred to as the "old guard."

If this "old guard" favored the former president's renomination the uninstructed delegations and the "favorite son" candidacy might be considered of aid to Hoover.

But not a few of the "old guard" were against Hoover at Kansas City in 1936; and, from all appearances, they are against him this year.

There are others of the former president's friends who see he has unselfishly assumed a lead in campaigning against the New Deal without hope of further rewards from the party.

EPWORTH LEAGUE UNION MET WITH RICE ON TUESDAY

The Epworth League Union met at Rice Tuesday night in its regular monthly session. The Eleventh Avenue Methodist church of Corsicana had charge of the program with Milton Campbell as leader. He discussed the various ways by which the League could be improved. The rest of the program was made up of songs and prayers.

The leader then turned the program over to the president, Virginia Kerr. The minutes of the last meeting were read and the secretary gave a report on the contest, which is going on between the leagues.

Following this the election of new officers for the coming year was held. The following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. Campbell; Eleventh Avenue Methodist; first vice president, Elizabeth Ann Blackburn; First Methodist church; secretary-treasurer, Katherine McMullen; program chairman, Dorothy Burkhardt; music chairman, Kimbrough Garrett; reporter, Martha Martin; sponsor, Rev. W. M. Justice.

Executive Committee—Winkie Pierce, Frances Inmon, John Lackey, Flora Nel Renfro, Betty Yates.

After the business meeting, games were played and refreshments were served and enjoyed by all. Kerris is to have the Union next month with Rice in charge of the program. —Reporter.

TEXAS' QUOTA OF WPA WORKERS ARE REPORTED EMPLOYED

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 20.—(Spl.)—With the state's quota of 120,000 persons on Works Progress Administration projects realized, State Administrator H. P. Drought has instructed the 20 districts to can all outstanding requisitions for additional labor.

Tabulations of reports from the districts today revealed 123,000 employed as of the week ending February 15.

Although there still remain some unassigned workers, most, if not all, of them were expected to be absorbed by the transfer of WPA workers to non-WPA projects and by vacancies created through jobs provided for project workers by expanding private industry.

"You should release workers to other federal agencies operating work projects as rapidly as possible so as to take care of those awaiting assignment," Drought said.

Individual districts will continue to work employables on the basis of the number currently employed in each of the 20 districts.

Drought said, "Vacancies may be filled by those not now assigned, but the total number of workers in a district may not exceed the number now working. It was estimated that there are throughout the state 9,555 eligible workers who, for various reasons, have not been assigned.

The club president, Mrs. Dobbs, who has been very ill since Christmas, was able to be in her chair again. She appointed Mrs. W. N. Hamilton as Sunshine chairman and Mrs. F. P. McCullum as custodian to paper napkins and candy hearts.

After the business, Mrs. Beaman served sandwiches, cookies, tea and coffee and little candy hearts. Valentine colors were carried out, with a red heart on paper napkins and candy hearts.

I run a boarding house for birds. The starlings come at seven; the pheasants follow afterwards; the quail about eleven.

I've heard them chattering at their meal. Almost as humans do, and wished the secrets they reveal.

At table time I knew. But this I know, from tree and bush.

For many a mile away, into my boarding house they rush.

At least three times a day.

But this I cannot seem to learn, why starlings come at seven, and quail serenely wait their turn till quarter past eleven.

GRADE CROSSING DEATHS

Grade crossing deaths are increasing. They were nearly 6 per cent more numerous in 1935 than in 1934.

The most remarkable thing about these accidents, says an automobile club secretary, is that large numbers occur when cars smash headlong against the SIDES of trains. In some cases the train has even been standing still. In others automobiles have crashed through safety gates which were in proper position. About one-fourth of the accidents occur in broad daylight.

There are many marked but unguarded crossings. More than a fourth of the accidents, however, occur at crossings protected by safety devices.

The elimination of grade crossings, a project now well started in this country, is the best cure for the evil. That it will not end all such accidents has been shown by the fact that motorists occasionally ram into concrete abutments and kill themselves in the underpass built for their convenience and safety.

All possible mechanical means should be employed to end this hazard. And then attention should be centered on the human factor, which is hardest of all to control.

TWO-YEAR WEATHER FORECAST

Weather has been the accidental ally of many an army in the course of history. Weather helped Alexander the Great on several occasions. It lost a fine fleet for Spain when it wrecked the Armada on the Irish coast. It favored Washington and enabled him to trick the British at Trenton. It cost Napoleon most of his army in Russia. It is making conquest harder now for the Italians in Ethiopia.

It is with such facts in mind that the United States Navy is studying the long-range weather forecasting of a man who says he has a formula for determining the weather two years in advance with 65 per cent accuracy.

If he is right, his forecasts can be put to many uses. The first suggestion made seems to arise from the imminence of war in a large part of the world. War maneuvers could be planned months in advance and could be halted easily or carried out successfully if there was a really accurate foreknowledge of weather.

Of course, there is always a chance that some government will get hold of the precious formula, or will evolve one of its own. In that case, there would be two armies or two navies playing the game according to the weather. Then where would the advantage lie?

It would be more profitable to use the advance weather information to help with normal activities, enabling people to plan meetings, pageants, conventions, vacations, parades, and so on for the periods of fine weather.

MEANEST CROOKS

A Brazilian lawyer has had a sad lesson in the crookedness of crooks. Two counterfeitors were arrested in Sao Paulo on charges of passing bogus American currency. They were released on writs of habeas corpus after the lawyer they hired had pleaded illegal detention for them.

The lawyer's fee was a modest $500, which the counterfeiter paid promptly in crisp $100 bills. The drawback was that the bills were counterfeit. Also, the two clients fled the country promptly, so the cheated lawyer has no redress.

Such meanness is disillusioning.

Rust is said to destroy $3,000,000,000 worth of iron a year. That would buy a good deal of new stainless steel.

Everything we learn about the last war tells us to keep out of the next one.

Some politicians run, and others just take a walk.

USING NATIONAL PARKS

The American public has taken to the national parks with growing enthusiasm. During 1935, according to the Forest Service, visitors in the parks numbered 58,548,000. That total, of course, includes many duplicates. A family touring six different parks during one season would be counted six times. Many of the number, too, were transient motorists who merely drove through the forest highways without pausing to camp or tramp. Even with these deductions, the total number is tremendous and shows a very pleasant development.

Most visitors really paused to enjoy the parks and use their facilities for outdoor recreation. More will do so in coming seasons, too; for the people who visit the national parks, in every part of the country, spread around the word of their beauty and interest and delights. New visitors appear in numbers, and former visitors return to once-visited parks or seek new ones with increasing zest.

INK FOR RIOTERS

They still have an occasional idea in Egypt, where thinking is supposed to have started. In one of those student riots the other day the police pulled a new trick. They were armed with two kinds of weapons—shotguns and ink pumps.

The pumps sprayed the rioters with indelible ink for identification purposes. Those who could not be arrested immediately, for lack of enough policemen, were marked and filed away, so to speak, for future reference. The police are said to have adopted a different color of ink for every day in the week, so that when they catch any ink-stained person they will know approximately when, where and why he got stained.

Students, rather than policemen, would be expected to think up that one. It would be a natural stunt for American students in their everlasting feud with cops. They'll doubtless be trying it.

Sensible young fellows with a gift for hand work will be getting ready for that building boom.

Milton called it the "human form divine," but in modern sculpture it's the human form maligned.

Such meanness is disillusioning.

While sorrowing for poor debtors drop a tear once in a while for poor creditors.

Instead of international commerce nowadays, they just haul gold around.

VETERAN LEADER OF SPANISH LEFTISTS FORMS NEW CABINET

MADRID, Feb. 20.—(Spl.)—Spain's veteran leftist leader, Manuel Azana, announced today the government crisis arising from last Sunday's general election, completing formation of a new cabinet while freedom of order went forth for political prisoners.

Azana, who was the first president of the present Spanish republic, succeeded in lining up his new left-republican government last night; less than four hours after he was enmeshed with the task by President Niceto Alcalá Zamora.

The new ministry contained 13 posts, three more than the former government of Manuel Portela Valdáres—the cabinet of the government center, which was defeated despite its position with the rightists in Sunday's election for a new parliament.

Most of the portfolios went to Azana's own followers, the ministry having nine left-republican members, two union-republicans, one "technician" and one independent.

The will said the purpose of the school would be to study the economic and political interests of Texas and other states as well as the principles of Thomas Jefferson, George McDuffie and Matthew Maury.

It also directed that a comparison between the character and principles of Jefferson Davis and Abraham Lincoln be made.

"The idea of the necessity of economic and political science as well as the principles of the South came to me while I was in Galveston, Texas, writing for the Atlanta Constitution Publishing Company," the will stated.

Should Texas refuse the request, it said, the money would go to the Mobile, Ala., chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy for "some worthy purpose," and if the chapter refused it to the Atlanta chapter of the same organization.

General Allard said the state would accept the bequest and suggested it might be turned over to one of the teachers' colleges at Huntsville or Nacogdoches.

UTICA BUSINESS IS RESUMED FOLLOWING SERIES EXPLOSIONS

UTICA, N. Y., Feb. 20.—(Spl.)—Business houses in downtown Utica opened their doors to customers and 4,000 employees today after a two-day shut-down brought about by a series of underground gas explosions. Traffic was barred from the main business intersection, however.

Telephone, electric and gas companies all sent crews of workers to the main corner to begin repair work. The crews descended into excavations to mend broken wires and lay new gas and water pipe connections.

Firemen extinguished the last of the flames smoldering beneath downtown streets yesterday, clearing the way for repair crews to restore the normal pulse of business in the heart of Utica's downtown section.

FACE MASK FOR WRINKLES

Today Miss Forbes tells you how to make a white of egg mask which will smooth out wrinkles and take years from your face. Try it to-night.

If you want to draw up lax muscles and take years from your face by doing so, make yourself a white of egg face mask. To do this you beat up the white of an egg with its own amount of vinegar. You can if you want add a minute pinch of powdered alum, of powdered camphor, and a little glycerine. These things sometimes go into E. K. Forbes' egg mask, but I don't think they are of any special value. The whole virtue of this is the egg itself, which lies on the skin and pulls it up the vinegar, bleaching, and it better to dilute the egg white than to use it straight.

Before you begin this treatment cleanse the skin with cream, washed off with soap and warm water. The skin must be absolutely clean before you begin. Then smooth on the white of egg, making quite a thick coating. Lie down 20 minutes while this dries. This also is important, for your face relaxes and smooths out while you are resting.

After 20 minutes or so wash off the egg with tepid water. As all this dries the skin, rub on some massage cream immediately, and either let it soak into the skin for ten minutes or spend five minutes working it well into the skin. Wipe off with tissues, but do not try to get it all off; leave some on, it will serve as a good powder foundation.

This white of egg is the foundation of a great many face masks sold under various fancy names. Actually it should get quite dry on the skin to be really effective. Therefore the home-made type is better than any of those you buy, which remain sticky no matter how long they are on the skin.

The dry egg actually does draw up the skin; it makes your face feel as though it were in a tight vice. This strong astringent is Miserable. — There are times when pimples perpetuate themselves, by continually re-infecting the skin. Your two years of outbreaks of these blemishes may be caused in this way. If so, they will yield to any simple antiseptic treatment, something suited to the skin. If the cause is in the system, you will have to get at it, and clean up internally. Originally, there must have been some toxic condition that started the skin trouble, and it may even now be in need of care. Some persons use a sulphur ointment on and around a pimple, and plain sulphur dusted on the section of the skin needing care will purify and hasten the healing of a pimple. If the trouble is in the system, most likely it is the colon that is at fault. A more thorough cleansing or as many as needed, will fully purify the digestive tract, and will surely leave the skin in perfect condition. One such cleaning often clears the skin almost instantly.

Constant Reader.—The frown persists in remaining because you must be forming it all the time. Stop the bad habit of puckerling the muscles where the lines are forming. If you are able to smooth the skin while you are giving that part a massage, it shows you could get rid of the lines. If you are not able to do this without some help, try using a piece of court plaster over the spot, after first smoothing the place with finger tips. You will not be able to frown then, and a few days of this reminder may break the bad habit.

BLUMENFIELD FREED OF MURDER CHARGE IN EDITOR'S DEATH

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 19.—(AP)—With Isadore (Kid) Cann Blumenfield, former bootlegger, acquitted of murdering Walter W. Liggett, crusading weekly newspaper publisher, a new attempt to solve the crime was ordered by Gov. Floyd B. Olson today.

Blumenfield, a liquor salesman and former boxer, was acquitted by a jury in a district court last night. The jurors were out three and one-half hours.

Gov. Olson said every available state agency would be used in an effort to locate the actual slayers. Responsibility for pursuit of the investigation was delegated to the state attorney general's office by County Attorney Ed G. Goff.

Blumenfield's relief and joy at hearing the verdict was too great to suppress. When District Judge Arthur W. Selover had read the verdict, he burst from his chair. He was pulled back by his counsel, Thomas W. McMakin. Cann and McMakin wept as the judge read the verdict.

Mrs. Liggett, informed of the verdict, prepared a statement for interviewers in which she said, "The Minneapolis police force has done nothing." She criticized the testimony of four policemen called by the defense. After she testified as an eye-witness that she named Blumenfield as the slayer the night her husband died she testified she actually said "either Gov. Olson's mob or Kidd Cann got my husband."

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 19.—(AP)—Giving herself "about a month to live" should she carry on with her slain husband's crusading weekly paper, Mrs. Edith Liggett disclosed today she is leaving Minnesota.

The widow of Walter Liggett, crusading newspaper publisher who was slain Dec. 9 by a machine gunner, said she was going East to "get a job as soon as possible" and that it was fear for her children's future rather than for her own personal safety that prompted her decision.

Mrs. Liggett's statement followed the acquittal last night of Isadore (Kid) Cann Blumenfield, former bootlegger, who was found innocent of a charge of murdering Liggett by a jury in district court. Blumenfield was the object of attacks by Liggett in his weekly newspaper, the Midwest American.

"I stayed in Minneapolis. I'd go on with Walter's paper and I'd have about a month to live," Mrs. Liggett said. "If I went on with his paper, I'd be killed."

Death of her husband, Mrs. Liggett said, left her and her two small children, Marda and Wallace, virtually penniless. The children, she said, are in the care of friends outside Minnesota.

He suggested that all countries in bringing their military equipment up to date, were "dumping" outdated stocks on the market in the same manner as this country.

Previous testimony indicated such stock was being sold to South American and Cuban revolutionists.

Paley testified that the army sold junk dealers thousands of mutilated pistols and rifles, also repairable.

Sergeant Butts earlier had told of tracing one such pistol from its sale by the army to the hands of a New York murderer.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—(AP)—Testimony that thousands of machine guns—mutilated but repairable—were being sold by the army while the jumbo department was trying to prevent their delivery to gangsters was given today before the senate munitions committee.

Jacob Paley, New York junk dealer, testified that in addition to 3,834 machine guns he bought in 1933, other quantities were being offered "almost every week" at army depots in various parts of the country.

At the same time, he said, the justice department "was checking up on me almost every day" to find where the guns were being sold.

"Here was the government," he said, with a characteristic out-spreading of hands, "selling guns with one hand and belly-aching about it with the other."

Cotton Spinning Industry Showed Operation Jump

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—(AP)—The cotton spinning industry was reported today by the Census Bureau to have operated during January at 111.9 per cent of capacity, on a single shift basis, compared with 103.8 during December last, and 102.6 during January last year.

Spinning spindles in place Jan. 31 totaled 29,040,208, of which 23,323,958 were active at some time during the month, compared with 29,253,441 and 23,323,708 for December last, and 30,525,944 and 25,145,964 for January last year.

Active spindle time for January totaled 7,713,694,646 or an average of 266 hours per spindle in place, compared with 6,803,980,354 and 233 for December last, and 7,510,017,095 and 244 for January last year.

Redfern was crippled by the crash, but was held in awe by the Indians because he came out of the skies.

Harred said that after he and Williams flew into the interior, they saw remains of Redfern's plane hanging on the branch of a large tree.

Later, they found the missing American, dressed in ragged undershirts and drawers.

As they chatted with him, they said 500 Indians with poisoned spears and other weapons surrounded them.

"When the Indians saw we intended to take Redfern away," said Harred, "they threatened us with spears."

"On Redfern's advice we left, waiting four days in the district in the hope of effecting a rescue, but eventually we had to return without him."

Harred said Redfern's arms and legs were broken in the crash of his plane that medicine men had set the bones. He said Redfern walked with crutches.

Paul Rinaldo Redfern of Savannah, Ga., was 24 years old when he took off from Brunswick, Ga., Aug. 25, 1927, on an attempt to fly non-stop to Rio de Janeiro.

His plane was last sighted on the following day 300 miles east of the Bahama Islands.

Redfern's wife, Gertrude, who lives with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hillbrand, in Toledo, Ohio, long has believed that her husband still is alive.

Redfern's father is Dr. Frederick C. Redfern, dean of Benedict College, of Columbia, S. C.

Tom Rock, the first explorer to tell the story which Alfred Harred told today, has presented several affidavits to United States consular officials in South America and Panama, declaring his story is true.

The Elbert S. Wald post of the American Legion, Cristobal, Canal Zone, has an expedition in British Guiana, at the present time trying to find Redfern.

To Seek Rescue of Son.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Feb. 20.—(AP)—Dr. Frederick Redfern, elderly professor whose missing aviator son Paul, was reported located today, said he had permission from the Brazilian government to take steps to reach him from a savage Indian tribe said to be holding him captive.

REDFERN

waiting four days in the district in the hope of effecting a rescue, but eventually we had to return without him."

Harred said Redfern's arms and legs were broken in the crash of his plane that medicine men had set the bones. He said Redfern walked with crutches.

Paul Rinaldo Redfern of Savannah, Ga., was 24 years old when he took off from Brunswick, Ga., Aug. 25, 1927, on an attempt to fly non-stop to Rio de Janeiro.

His plane was last sighted on the following day 300 miles east of the Bahama Islands.

Redfern's wife, Gertrude, who lives with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hillbrand, in Toledo, Ohio, long has believed that her husband still is alive.

Redfern's father is Dr. Frederick C. Redfern, dean of Benedict College, of Columbia, S. C.

Tom Rock, the first explorer to tell the story which Alfred Harred told today, has presented several affidavits to United States consular officials in South America and Panama, declaring his story is true.

The Elbert S. Wald post of the American Legion, Cristobal, Canal Zone, has an expedition in British Guiana, at the present time trying to find Redfern.

To Seek Rescue of Son.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Feb. 20.—(AP)—Dr. Frederick Redfern, elderly professor whose missing aviator son Paul, was reported located today, said he had permission from the Brazilian government to take steps to reach him from a savage Indian tribe said to be holding him captive.

Interest paid is deductible, so interest received is taxable. All such amounts, including interest received on bank and savings deposits, must be included in the taxpayer's return of gross income.

Interest paid on behalf of a friend or relative where there is no legal obligation on the part of the payor is not deductible.

Investigation Ordered.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—(AP)—The state department today cabled instructions to the American consul at Trinidad, British West Indies, to investigate the statement by Alfred Harred at Georgetown, British Guiana, that he had seen and talked to Paul Redfern, missing American aviator.

The department acted on reports quoting Harred as saying Redfern was held captive in the jungle fastness of Guiana by an Indian tribe.

He urged the consul at Trinidad, the nearest place of American representation, to seek further information from Harred, whose story was the first report that any outside authority had contacted the missing flier.

Allred Not Seeking Honors.

AUSTIN, Feb. 20.—(AP)—Governor Allred said today he would attend the democratic convention at Philadelphia if elected a delegate, but was not concerned over honors such as the leadership of the delegation.

Reports from Washington following the conference between Myron Blalock of Marshall, chairman of the state executive committee, and national party leaders, were that U. S. Senator Tom Connally might be chairman of the delegation and Governor Allred nominate Vice-President Garner.

"I have not sought any honor," Allred said. "These little honors are not anything to fight about. Whatever is good for the party is good enough for me."
